Instructions

1. Wire Transfers are processed through our correspondent bank, EasCorp. MITFCU cannot receive incoming wires directly. EasCorp must be listed as the receiving bank and MIT Federal Credit Union as the beneficiary.
2. For international Wire Transfers, please note that most U.S. banks do not have a SWIFT or an IBAN number. We do not have a SWIFT or an IBAN number; EasCorp's routing number (ABA) is the equivalent.
3. Generally, there is a location on Wire Transfer forms that indicates a reference or further details; this is where your name and account number should be listed.
4. There is no service charge for incoming wires.

If you have any questions regarding these instructions, please call 617-253-2845.
